Perle Royale

The Robert Wan Pearl Museum is an unforgettable activity of the island of Tahiti that one should experience. It is the only museum in the world dedicated to this exceptional Tahitian pearl and confides in its visitors the cultured pearl's secrets, its history and the tools to choose their pearls. The Robert Wan Pearl Museum provides numerous illustrations and explanations that are adapted for amateurs and for experienced people. Robert Wan reveals all the secrets of the conception of Tahitian cultured pearls and discloses its symbol over the centuries. He also shares pieces from his private collection, among which the biggest Tahitian round pearl of the world, called « La Robert WAN ».

THE ROBERT WAN PEARL MUSEUM

When visiting the Pearl Museum, you dive into the Tahitian Pearl Universe and get fully immersed in the heart of the Tuamotu Gambier pearl farms. A team of advisers, who speak many languages (French, English, Spanish, Italian, and Chinese) will guide you during your visit and will assist you during the choice of your precious souvenir.

The Pearl Museum is open from Monday to Saturday, from 9 am to 5 pm. The entrance is free and shuttles are made available on demand. Moreover, located near the Paofai Temple, the Pearl Museum is only 5 minutes away from the harbor by feet. The walk offers the visitors unique landscapes of the daily Polynesian lifestyle.
