The Wittmer family has been part of Galapagos history since 1932. From their beginnings on Floreana Island to the creation of Tip Top I in 1969 and Rolf Wittmer Turismo in 1982, their legacy continues today through generations of local expertise and first-class small-ship exploration.

A LEGACY BORN IN GALAPAGOS

From pioneering roots to unforgettable expeditions

"It doesn't matter how many times a ship wrecks—what is important is to learn the lessons, get back on your feet, and build another one."

— Captain Rolf Wittmer

1932

THE STORY BEGINS

The Wittmer family settled on Floreana, beginning a lifelong connection with the islands.

1969

BORN TO SAIL

Tip Top I was built by Rolf Wittmer, beginning a family legacy at sea.

1982

A NEW CHAPTER

Rolf Wittmer Turismo was founded, bringing family heritage and authentic Galapagos experiences.

TODAY

ROLF WITTMER

LEGACY AT SEA

Today, Rolf Wittmer continues its family legacy through authentic small-ship Galapagos experiences.

WHY ROLF WITTMER?

Four-Vessel Fleet
Two motor catamarans and two motor yachts give individual travelers, groups, and private charters plenty of options.

Small-Ship Experience
With no more than 16 guests aboard each vessel, travelers experience Galapagos in a personal, intimate setting.

Local Expertise
A family legacy rooted in the islands, with decades of experience navigating Galapagos.

First-Class Comfort
Comfortable cabins, thoughtfully designed social spaces, and attentive onboard service.

Private Charter Opportunities
Ideal for private groups, affinity travel, families, and special-interest programs.

Experienced Teams
Professional crews and naturalist guides support guests every step of the journey.

First-class small-ship cruising, personalized service, and expert naturalist guides: the Galapagos, the Wittmer way.
